Congrats, Grad!

So now what happens with your health insurance?

- If your parents allow it, you can be added to their plan and stay on it until you turn 26.
- Did you land a new job? Double congrats! Enroll in your employer’s plan. Just talk to the benefits administrator at your company.
- Under 30 and staying in Massachusetts? The HMO Blue Essential plan could be perfect for you. You’re covered in case you get sick or injured, there’s no cost for routine preventive care, and you get savings on your gym membership. Learn more at www.liveyourlifenow.com.
- Over 30 and staying in Massachusetts? Get the coverage that’s right for you by visiting www.GetBlueMA.com.
- If you’re leaving Massachusetts, no worries. We can help you find a plan that fits you and your budget. Get started at www.askblueinsurance.com.
